MISS FRANKLIN, DAVID AUSTIN TO BE WED

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Franklin. of Appomattox, announce the engagement of their daughter, Hazel Roberta to David Omar Austin, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G .Austin, of Appomattox.

The wedding will take place August 1, at 8:00 P. M., in Hollywood Baptist Church.

No invitations are being issued, but friends and relatives are invited to attend.

Both are graduates of Appomattox High School and are employed in Appomattox.

Waiting To Visit Appomattox

Cindy Lea Newcomb, daughter of A/1C Wesley C. Newcomb, and Mrs. Newcomb (formerly Ann Evans), of Appomattox, who was born in Germany 18 months ago, will see the United States in March, 1960. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J .Evans.

Entertained at Supper Party

Misses Catherine, Cynthia, and Jane Richardson entertained at a supper party on Thursday, July 9, from 6 to 9 O'clock in honor of their cousin, Brenda Anne Jefferson, who was a guest in the Richardson home. Dancing and canasta provided diversion for the evening and prizes were given. Recipients of prizes were Corrine Abbitt, Jimmy Torrence, Patricia Ferguson, Jimmy Cravens, Joyce Carter, and Jamey Elizabeth Wright, of Gladstone.

Other guest were Grey Hesson, also of Gladstone, Jacquelyn Ann Arnold, of Amherst, Ronald Millner, Tom Evans, Lina Trent, Mary Yancey Spencer, Susan Burke, Carolyn Carter, Butch Bryant, Jimmy Burke, Mary Grey Holland, Myron and Anita Richardson, and the honoree's mother and sister, Mrs. Carey J. Jefferson and Miss Pamela Jefferson, of Amherst.

Miss Covington and Mr. Doss Are Wed

The marriage of Miss Ida Virginia Covington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar A. Covington, to Kenneth T. Doss, son of Mrs. Aleen Doss and the late Thomas T. Doss, of Appomattox, took place June 27, at 8 o'clock in the home of the bride. The Rev. Dr. Twyman Williams, pastor, officiated, performing the double ring ceremony, before an altar of white flowers.

Mrs. Walter Carson presented the program of wedding music.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white silk nylon, over taffeta. Her finger tip veil fell from a bow of white satin. She carried a white prayer Book, topped with white orchid, and showered with stephanatis. Miss Etta Beale, of Appomattox was maid of honor. Her gown was of blue net over taffeta, and she carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses.

The best man was Ran Hall, of Appomattox. Ushers were Kinckle Martin, Robert Walker, and Johnny and Henry Earl Covington.

For traveling, the bride chose a dress of black brocade and white accessories. She wore the orchid from the prayer book.

A reception was held after the ceremony, at the bride's home.

Serving at the punch bowl was Mrs. Rob Martin and Mrs. Henry Covington, and serving the wedding cake was Mrs. Jim Carson and Mrs. R. W .Covington.

After a wedding trip, the couple expect to make their home in Lynchburg.

Colored Dots

The public is cordially invited to attend the seventy-second anniversary of the Promise Land Baptist Church and the eleventh anniversary of its pastor on the fourth Sunday in this month at 11:30 A. M., and at 3 P. M. The church anniversary will be preached by the pastor of the church at the 11:30 A. M. service and the Rev. James Franklin will preach the pastor's anniversary at the 3:00 P. M. service. Music will be furnished by the Mount Shiloh Baptist Church choir. The history of the church will be given by deacon William Hancock, clerk of the church. Each member of the church is asked to give one penny for each year the church is old as an extra anniversary offering. Deacon Stewart Robinson will serve as master of ceremony in the morning, and Mrs. Alberta Marshall will serve as mistress of ceremony in the afternoon.

Impressive services were held at the Mount Shiloh Baptist Church last Sunday morning. The pastor delivered a special sermon from the subject: "Disowning Christ." All present enjoyed the message.

The Cornerstone Sunday School convention is convening with the Beautiful Zion Baptist Church at Red House today and Friday.

An appreciative crowd attended the special service sponsored by Mrs. Judy Coleman at the First Baptist Church last Sunday at 3 P. M., by the pastor and choir of the Promise Land Church. The offering was taken by Deacons William Hancock and Justin McDaniels.

Rev. C. A. Marshall received word last Wednesday that his brother in La. is slowly improving.

All officers and members of the Promise Land Baptist Church are urged to attend church meeting this Saturday at 2:30 P. M.

Plans are near completion for the annual home coming at the Galilee Baptist Church on the first Sunday in Augusta. The Union Baptist Church of Baltimore will be the special guest. A chartered bus from Baltimore will be here for the all-day service. Dinner will be served by the ladies of the church.

Mr. Robert Turner is ill at his home in Spout Spring.

Rev. and Mrs. R. Q. Lawing, Rev. and Mrs. C. L. Elliott and deacon and Mrs. Calloway were the Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jemmie Jackson Sunday.

Rev. Marshall was the guest speaker at the Morning Star Baptist Church Sunday.

A large crowd attended the funeral services for the late Thomas Jones at the Peaceful Grove Baptist Church last Thursday at 2 P. M. The eulogy was delivered by the Rev .L. S. Ward, of Lynchburg. Rev. R. Q. Lawing assisted in the service.
